GOVERNOR WISE, CHARLESTOWN, and HARPER'S FERRY.

The subscriber, inventor and unanufacturer of Otis's Improved Safety Elevator and Heisting Machinery for steam, water, or hans power, Manufactory at Youkers, N. Y., extensively used in many of the principal cities and towns throughout the United States, desires to inform his friends and the public, that after laving vidted Charlestown, Va., and been there held for three days and three nights as a prisoner of war, charged with the crime of resembling John Brown, and suspected of being his sonn suspected of being a elergyman, a Binck. Republican, an Abeltionist, a Boxton editor, a stamp steaker, &c., "agninat the peace and dignity of the said State of Virginia," suspected also of meditating treason against Virginia and "the rest of manking," has safely returned from this den of frightened lions, without broken boues, and with no smell of fire in his garments. He desires thus publicly to return thanks to tow. Wise, Gen. Talliaferro, Col. Davis, Col. Stewart, the Mayor Charlestown, O. Jennings Wise, and the authorities and people of the state generally, for extraordin sy attentions, and kind-board bill while a prisoned to wal. It was only worthy to be mentioned in emmection with hospitalities and attentions dealt out in such generous profusion by the frightened oid "Mother of Presidenta." Finally, the subscriber has returned from his agreeable Southern tour, with many of his former prejudices against "Southerness' removed by the animated conversations held for 36 hours with some 50 Virginians, including Gen. Inhinterry, Col. Davis, Col. Stewart, O. Jennings Wise, Mayor Green, a dozen or two of detectives, and many citteres; on every phase of the various questions now agitating this country—such as dissolution of the Union, war between the North and the South, England multing with the South, selzing the United States Treasury and Navy, refusing te sell in Cotton, Harper's Ferry, Brooks and Samoer, Southern freedress, Cotton meded. Northern douguisces, and other subjects too numerous to mention.
